Todd,

Mr. Goldstein mentions "reports below" in his correspondence. Can you send me the reports he is referring to. I tried to enter the CMS system again and it is not working with any of my usernames that I have for EPA (ktaylo02, taylor.kevin, kevin taylor). I have even tried to look it up in the training course that they have linked to the site.

Thanks,
Kevin

Hi Kevin: The due date for the methane release response got bumped up to tomorrow. Do you think you can prepare a draft response by COB today?

This is what you are responding to:

Dear Mr. Starfield,

As a former mayor-commissioner of Gainesville Florida, folks here still contact me with reports of agency and industry wrongdoings. I try to assist with the help of knowledgeable citizens and friends in the local and national press.

The present atmospheric event has so far evaded all regional disclosure and investigative reporters, so I am contacting you requesting assistance.

This one is over our heads, literally. Would you kindly check the reports below and refer to appropriate EPA staff for investigation of this unexplained mass atmospheric release, now confirmed by local and national observers in Gainesville and North Florida.

Thank you and your colleagues in advance for your service, your assistance and contact regarding this matter of urgent concern

Mark Kane Goldstein
Gainesville, Florida

I've attached a copy of a recent control that I did for your reference. Let's discuss this morning.

Sincerely,
